'Bill 111 Passage Is Approval Of SJSC System'—President

"The State legislature's passage of Bill 111 amounts to approval of our type of educational institution," Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of San Jose State college, said Friday.

Bill 111 creates the Los Angeles State College of Applied Arts and Sciences. Its main emphasis will be on preparing students for positions in business and industry. Also, it will combine a junior college with the state college, similar to San Jose State.

Policy Change Indicated

"Since the bill was passed almost unanimously it would seem to indicate a change of policy on the part of the legislature toward combined junior and state colleges," explained Dr. MacQuarrie. "This could amount to a repudiation of the Strayer committee report which recommended that junior and state colleges be separated."

"In addition," he continued, "the passage of this bill is an indication of an intention to economize on the part of the legislature. It is obvious that a junior college using a separate plant would be an unnecessary expense and would not insure adequate facilities for the junior college. For example, they have the use of an excellent, if small, library here, which probably could not be provided on a new, separate campus."

Provision for Advisory Board

Another interesting feature of the new bill is that it provides for an official advisory board for the new college. Dr. MacQuarrie said that a separate bill is coming up in the legislature providing official advisory boards for all state colleges.

"The boards will provide increased local control in state colleges," the president said. "San Jose has always had an advisory board, but it has been unofficial in nature and largely inoperative."

Stanford Reports New Cancer Aid

PALO ALTO (UP)—Stanford university reported today a new chemical successfully delayed the progress of cancer for periods up to 215 days.

The chemical, aminopterin, an anti-folic acid chemical, was used by Dr. Harold K. Faber. Faber said the disease was suspended for periods from 83 to 215 days in 15 of the children tested.

Aminopterin has no effect on cancer itself, but does temporarily relieve bleeding and prostration, the distressing symptoms of acute leukemia. However, the leukemia itself continues to develop and the patient eventually dies, Faber said.

Historic Mission Bell Goes On Tour In Global Plea for Freedom and Unity

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15—(UP)—A Historic Mission bell, probably built by the Russians, will be taken on a nationwide and overseas tour beginning April 17, as part of a campaign to herald a world-wide ringing of bells May 1, in a global plea for freedom and unity.

The bell is from California's Mission San Antonio de Padua and first rang in America in 1771. It will be accompanied on the aerial tour of the U.S. and nations outside the iron curtain by a brown-robed Franciscan Padre.

Frosh Push Spardi Gras

Plans for booths and concessions at the 1949 Spardi Gras were discussed at the Freshmen class council's first meeting of the quarter.

Dick Cirigliano, Spardi Gras chairman, explained the need for increased booths and concessions at this year's Spardi Gras.

The council agreed to encourage all freshmen to enter the beard and long fingernail contests.

Following adjournment of the council meeting a special committee meeting was held in which Lower Division Day plans were discussed.

Lower Division Day will replace this quarter's Frosh Soph mixer since the Freshmen have already won the plaque that is awarded to the winning class.

Tentative plans include games and a barbecue in the afternoon and a dance in the evening.

The Lower Division Day committee will hold another meeting Monday at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Scholars Document Holds Top Billing On Council Agenda

Chief Justice Tom Eddy's report on the Student Court's opinion of the Academic Scholars constitution has top billing on the agenda of tonight's Student Council meeting. The newly formed organization is attempting to secure council recognition.

Another matter scheduled for the meeting is Ron LaMar's report on the Frosh Camp committee. La Mar will acquaint the council of the committee's plans to date, the estimated cost of the project, and support required of the council.

Pat Walsh will report on program plans for Recognition Assembly and the names of students that have been received thus far.

Nominations will be held for senior class representative to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Rhoda Anderson.

A report by Ann Guenther on the AWS convention and Dick Cirigliano's report on Spardi Gras committee progress are also scheduled.

Star Cop Student Nabbed for Theft

SEATTLE (UP)—Norman Proctor, 22, a star pupil in Seattle's police training school, landed in the city jail. He was arrested in a stolen car he has been driving to classes for the past two months.

Senior Award Goes To Mona Morris At WAA Banquet

Mona Morris received the Outstanding Senior award at the annual Women's Athletic association banquet held Thursday night at Lucca's Cafe in Santa Clara, according to Mary McNeil, chairman of the affair.

WAA emblems were awarded to six other girls during the evening. The girls are Marian Stark, Maxine Hall, Beverly Valdez, Tina Heck, Ruth Laine, and Sandy Macy.

Speakers Introduced

Speakers for the evening included Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, AWS adviser, Mrs. Jane Burtner, WAA adviser, and Miss Morris, past president of WAA. A "serious" speech was made by WAA junior adviser, Miss Mary Hooton.

Decorations for the event were carried out in a spring theme. Genevieve Villaseñor and Marjorie Cotton entertained with a duet, and Miss Marianne Gothard recited an original poem, "It Isn't True", based on the Faculty-Blue Frog basketball game last quarter.

Miss Morris installed the new WAA officers following the dinner. They are: Leta Walter, president; Mary McNeil, vice-president; Annabel Vargas, recording secretary; Marilyn Hein, corresponding secretary; Dorothy Rigan, treasurer; Joanne Ingraham, recorder of points; Pat Roan, publicity chairman; Barbara Albaugh, sports day chairman; Ruth Laine, archery manager.

Other Officers Installed

Fay Johnson, bowling manager; Mary White, badminton manager; Beverly Devin, hockey manager; Genevieve Villaseñor, basketball manager; Colleen Brooks, Orchestral; Bonnie Myers, softball; Jerry Bean, riding; C. J. Lyter, golf; Irma Tourtellot, volleyball; Dora Dill, tennis; Carol Nystuen, swimming; and Marianne Gothard, fencing.

Mrs. Jane Burtner was presented with a farewell gift by the WAA council since this will be her last quarter as adviser. Miss Hooton will fill the vacancy next fall.

Prices Cut Again For Many Items

Price cuts in a number of items ranging from soap to motorcars were announced Friday.

Hudson Motor Car company cut prices from $15 to $100 on 1949 models, following the lead of General Motors, Kaiser-Frazer, Willys-Overland, Ford, and Nash. The lowest-price super-six now begins at $1,915.

The Austin Motor company, Ltd., a British firm, announced cuts of $75 to $200 on all models on sale in America. A two-door sedan now can be had for $1,520.

At Chicago, International Harvester company, announced reductions of $25 to $28 on two models of home freezers. On March 18, the company had reduced prices on household refrigerators.

Lever Brothers company of Cambridge, Mass., and the Kendall Manufacturing company of Lawrence cut soap prices. Lever prices were slashed six per cent. The Kendall company said its reductions would amount to about two cents per box on the retail price of its granulated soap products.

At New York, the Rowe Manufacturing company, maker of automatic merchandising equipment, reduced prices $20 and $15 on two models of cigarette vending machines, the reductions to become effective tomorrow.

MacCarty Loses In NCI Finals

The Northern California Intercollegiate golf tournament proved to be a duplicate of last year as Al Nelson of St. Mary's retained his individual crown by beating Warren MacCarty of San Jose State. Earlier in the week the Spartan golfers had grabbed off the team championship for the second straight year.

Four Attend Mich Confab

Four lower division students from San Jose State college will be selected to receive two weeks' training in student leadership at Camp Miniwanca, Mich., in August, according to Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman.

Three of the delegates will be sponsored by the college. One freshman student will receive a scholarship from the Danforth foundation, a philanthropic organization founded by the president of Ralston Purina food products company to foster leadership among freshman college students.

"The Youth Leadership Training camp is conducted by the American Youth foundation, a non-sectarian, non-profit organization dedicated to the development of responsible leadership among American youth," continued Dean Pitman.

Both men and women students are eligible to enter applications, he added. Applications must be in the Dean of Women's office before noon, April 25.

A selection committee composed of San Jose State college students who have attended the camp during the past four years, Dean Helen Dimmick, Dean Pitman, Student Y Executive Secretary Janet Anderson, and Dr. Carl Rich, chairman, will select the four students.

Last year six Spartan students took top honors as potential leaders in nation-wide competition at the camp. Competition tests the delegation's performance as all-around leaders in indoor and outdoor activities of all kinds.

The successful 1948 delegation includes Bruce Craig, Fred Jobs, Bruce McNeil, Marsh Pitman, Esther Weakley and Dolores Arnold.

Student Opens Repair Shop

Norman Cockshaw, junior merchandising major, will combine learning and earning this quarter.

Cockshaw recently opened a watch repair store at 32-W, San Fernando street. He will attend classes during the morning and open the store in the afternoon.

Cockshaw took a watch repairing course from Mr. Francis N. Crofut, instructor in the horology division of the Industrial Arts department. He holds a watchmaker's certificate.

Cockshaw is married and lives in Spartan city. He is secretary of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.

Members Of Science Department Unearth Several Prehistoric Fossils

Six large bones unearthed by a highway construction firm near Livermore Wednesday have been identified as pre-historic Mastadon (hairy elephant) tusks by members of the San Jose State college Science department.

Mr. Rocci Pisano, Biology instructor, tentatively placed the age of the tusks at 50,000 years.

The bones were found by Tony Caputo, construction firm superintendent, when graders started digging out a 70-foot hillside. He notified Pisano and Dr. Carl Duncan, acting Science department head, MacCarty lost to Nelson in the 36-hole final Saturday by a 4 and 3 score. The Spartan golfer almost caught up with his opponent in the afternoon round but he took three puts on the 33rd hole to end the dual.

The 26 year old San Jose junior was the unsung hero of the powerful Gold and White team as he won two hard fought victories on Friday to stay in the running for the individual title. On that same day Eli Bariteau, Bill Ogden, Howard Verutti, and Ross Smith were eliminated in a series of close matches. MacCarty defeated team mate Billy Ogden, who was last year's NCI finalist, 3 and 2 with a brilliant two under par effort. This victory moved the Spartan into the crucial semi-final clash with Stanford's Ernie Kellburg who had edged out Eli Bariteau on the 21st hole when Eli missed a short putt.

Extra Holes

MacCarty stuck to Kellburg with a vengeance forcing the match into extra holes. On the 20th hole MacCarty sank a 14-foot putt sending Kellburg to the sidelines with the rest of his Stanford teammates.

Capt. Howard Verutti lost 6 and 5 to the champion Nelson on Friday. Ross Smith was eliminated 1 up that same round by Bob Unthank of Armstrong college.

Another member of the Spartan golf team, Ruskin Shepperd, lost to Jack Maugher of California in the finals of the first-flight championship.

This year's tournament at Pasatiempo attracted the largest field of collegiate golfers yet to enter the event. The 100 entrants represented 17 colleges. Joey Rea, club pro, and George MacRae, northern California USGA president, said they hope to make the tourney state-wide next year.

The undefeated Spartan golf squad will swing into action again on Thursday when they face College of Pacific at the Stockton links. The C.O.P. team finished fifth in team standings at Pasatiempo and should give State a close contest.

The finalists cards for the afternoon round:

Gamma Phi Names Chapter Officials

Ellen Erichsen, president of the Beta Theta chapter of Gamma Phi Beta, national social sorority, has announced the following appointments of officers to serve for the coming year:

Pledge trainer, Jeanne Ellis; senior Panhellenic representative, Barbara Brewster; junior Panhellenic representative, Virginia Jones; activities chairman, June Pereira; scholarship chairman, Barbara Fracisco; literary exercises and sergeant-at-arms, Barbara Pardee.

Acquacade Begins Thursday Night

Acquatic representations of circus clowns, ringmasters, children enjoying the side shows, and orange and black striped tigers will all add to the festive atmosphere of "Water Carousel," the annual swim show which will open in the Men's gym pool Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Members of the Swim club, which is sponsoring the show, say spectators will watch the circus-in-water to the tunes of authentic callopie music. Both costumes and lighting effects will carry out the theme, according to girls in the club.

Ann Corwin in Solo Ballet

The show will feature a solo ballet by Ann Corwin, and the combined talents of 100 swimmers and technicians. Yolanda "Doc" Vitale will appear as mistress of ceremonies.

The swim show has become an annual event, said Miss Mary Hooton, director of the acquacade. This year's show, she said, will give an evening performance June 11 in Salinas, when it will be the feature attraction at the opening of the new municipal swimming pool there.

The circus program of "Water Carousel," which will be given for three nights, includes a three ring formation, with 16 girls as ringmasters. A second number will feature swimmers dressed in old fashioned costumes, acting as "little kids" at the circus.

Swimming Set To Music

Lillian Dimpel and Bobbie Cabbage will swim to the strains of "Night and Day" in their water ballet duet. Background music for Ann Corwin's solo ballet is "Man on the Carousel."

A flashlight number will feature girls in formation with flashlights on their wrists, swimming to the words and music of "The Glow Worm." Girls in orange and black striped longjohns and hats will swim in the tiger number.

The show will conclude with clown, paddle board and seal numbers.

Tickets are now on sale in the Graduate Manager's office, but are going fast, according to Miss Hooton. Those who wish to see the show are urged to purchase their tickets early, she said.

Oregon Dean Visits Journalism Dept.

Dean George Turnbull of the University of Oregon School of Journalism, now teaching temporarily at Stanford, visited the Journalism department here recently.

Dean Turnbull commented favorably on a brief inspection tour of the Daily office and equipment used in printing and photography, according to Dwight Bentel, head of the department.

Mr. Bentel pointed out that Dean Turnbull is one of the better known men in the field of American journalism today.

GI Bill Recipients May Take Cal Vets Aid to Finish School

Miss Stella Barreto of the Veterans office has released the following information regarding the California Educational Institute (Cal. Vets).

Veterans now enrolled in college under the Federal G. I. Bill (P.L. 16) or Public Law 16 who will not have sufficient amount of eligibility to complete their education should leave their name in the Veterans office—room 32—if state educational assistance is desired at some future date. It is imperative that the state have this information as soon as possible so it may set up its budget.

Those who are eligible for benefits under the California Veterans Educational Institute are veterans who have resided in California for one year previous to their induction into the service.

The California Veterans Educational Institute allows the student $1,000 and out of this comes payment of tuition, student body card, books and supplies, and a maintenance of $40 a month. A veteran attending San Jose State college under this plan can ordinarily complete two years of college on $1,000.

If those registered under the Federal G.I. Bill (P.L. 346) wish to save their eligibility in order to attend an institution where the tuition is higher than San Jose State college they may transfer over to the California Veterans Program until they wish to change schools.

Martin to Become Student 'Y' Secretary

James A. Martin, Oregon State college alumnus now completing graduate work at Yale Divinity school, will become executive secretary of the Student Y in August, according to Dr. Harrison F. Heath, chairman of the selection committee.

A native of Portland, Oregon, Martin majored in education and commerce at Oregon State before going to Yale. He will be ordained in June. The new secretary will attend a conference for Y leaders in Colorado before coming to San Jose.

Martin will be the third Yale man to hold the position at the local Y.

Other members of the committee which selected Martin are Rev. Henry Croes, Mrs. Dorothy Downey, Rev. Joyce W. Farr, Miss Marie Herold, Dr. Bertha Mason, Miss Paula Phillips, Dean Paul M. Pitman, Mrs. Izetta Pritchard, and Bill Raver.

Thrust and Parry

We Like 'Em, Too -- Try Train

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I have worked in the Coop, "serve yourself" hamburger unit for two years now. In that time the operator and I have only rarely told anyone that they are using too many pickles, etc. On these rare occasions the buyers have tried to see just how much they could put on one hamburger.

However, what we do object to is this: many students bring a lunch from home and attempt to seupply their sandwiches with the lettuce and pickles here at the Coop counter. Just this type of incident happened about 1:30, Tuesday, April 12. If we let that continue we will not be able to supply ourselves with pickles.

Then there are the inconsiderate people that walk by the counter and pick up a pickle or two with dirty disease-bearing fingers. The contamination of this procedure would soon put many Spartans in bed.

If you don't continue to help us keep the unit clean we will have to revert to the days of making the hamburgers ourselves. You have the privilege of making your "burgers" to your taste, respect that privilege and use some consideration with common sense.

In a sense the Coop is truly a profit organization. The "profit" supplies the wages for the 16 full-time employees plus, at least, 57 of us students who greatly appreciate the money to continue our education.

Since when have our duly elected members of the council been too nice to take the train or bus to Sun Valley? If they want an airplane ride that bad they can go to the airport and pay the price for a short hop.

We think that the difference between train fare and $450 can be spent in a much better way to benefit the student body.

For example, the members of San Jose State's rifle team, who are in a league with such teams as California, Santa Clara, Stanford, USF, and Cal Aggies, have been trying to get the Student Council to award them block letters; but the council feels that it would be too expensive.

Raver, a journalism major, is interning on the Wilowah County Chiefton, a newspaper in Independence, Ore.

Stuntman Successful In Jump from Bridge

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Robert L. Niles, 22-year-old ex-army paratrooper, lived up to his boast Friday and parachuted successfully from Golden Gate bridge 230 feet into the swirling waters of the bay. Niles escaped unharmed and became the second person in history to have survived a leap from the famed "suicide span" which has claimed 112 victims since it was opened in 1937.

Previous Attempt Made

The bearded lanky paratrooper tried last March to leap from the lofty span in his "eagleman's suit", a canvas bat-like affair covered with birds' feathers. That time, however, highway patrolmen and bridge attendants stopped him.

But today, there was no stopping Niles. He jumped from an auto near the center of the span, tied a rope to the top railing and let himself down over the side so he would clear the underside of the bridge and let go.

He said later, after he was fished from the icy waters of the bay, he fell about 60 feet before he jerked the ripcord of his army-type parachute.

Niles was rescued by a cabin cruiser which apparently had been waiting beneath the bridge for him to leap. A Coast Guard cutter then intercepted the boat and took Niles to Fort Point Coast Guard rescue station.

There, he was greeted by a delegation of policemen, who arrested the stunt man on a charge of disturbing the peace and obstructing traffic on the bridge.

One Other Leap Survivor

Only other person known to have leaped from the bridge and lived was Cornelia Van Ireland, a pretty 22-year-old, who jumped in 1941. She suffered a broken back, broken arms and numerous other serious injuries and was hospitalized for months.

Niles was wearing bathing trunks and socks when he climbed off the Coast Guard cutter at Fort Point. He laughed and joked with reporters, cameramen, and police. "The only thing I was thinking about when I was coming down was 'will I be arrested a second time?'"

Niles was referring to the fact that when police foiled his first effort to jump last month they took him into custody on a technical charge and wouldn't release him until he was given a psychiatric examination.

When asked if he was going to do any more bridge jumping, Niles replied, "I'm through jumping off bridges."

Paratrooper Suit Worn

He said he did not wear his wierd "eagleman's suit" in today's leap. He was clad in a regulation paratrooper jump suit, which he shed after he hit the water.

The stunt man said he escaped with no injuries except a slight burn on his hand, suffered when he slid hastily down the rope just before his leap.

But Merrick Lewis, Alliance, O., a sophomore at the University of Arizona in Tucson, said he hoped months of careful preparation would enable his group to get through 170 miles of the wildest country in Arizona. Buy Plane

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I read with extreme interest and amusement the article telling about Student Council allotting $450 for the chartering of a private plane to fly four delegates to a conclave at Sun Valley, Idaho.

Such action seems to indicate that the council has vast financial resources at its disposal. Therefore, I would like to submit to the council the question, "Why be a patron of the airlines when with but a little additional expenditure you can acquire your own?"

Yours for more efficient and conservative student government.

Pitman Explains WSSF Drive Plans

Collection plans for the forthcoming World Student Service Fund drive were explained to organization representatives in a meeting Thursday afternoon by Marsh Pitman, WSSF chairman.

No goal was set for the drive. "We want each student and faculty member to give as much as he can," Pitman explained.

Lapel tags, with a receipt on one side and a picture of a San Jose student handling a microscope and books to a foreign student on the other, will be given to contributors, he said.

The faculty will be contacted by canvassers working under the direction of Dick Cirigliano. Students will give their donations to representatives from their living groups or organizations. In addition, a soliciting booth will be operated in the library arch, the chairman added.

SJSC Gives New Degrees

STANFORD'S GAY BRYAN SCORES 23 POINTS IN GREAT IRON MAN FEAT

By CARL UNDERWOOD

Led by Gay Bryan who turned in one of the greatest iron man performances in track and field annals, Stanford steamrolled over San Jose State's thinclads, 90 1-3-40 2-3, Saturday in the Indians' stadium. Bryan was practically a one man track team, although even without him the Cards fielded a much too powerful squad for the undermanned Spartans. The versatile Bryan entered five events and merely came through with four wins and a second for a total of 23 points.

San Jose's crack high jumper and school record holder, Mel Martin, was the only gold clad athlete to defeat Bryan as he sailed over 6 ft. 5 in. to whip his opponent by an inch in the high jump. Martin could have probably cleared 6 ft. 6 in. but attempted this height only once because of a sore leg.

Bryan Wins Dashes

Bryan earned his first victory by overtaking San Jose's Bobby Crowe in the final 25 yards of the 100 yard dash, winning by a foot in 9.9. After being shaded by Martin in the high jump, he once again came from behind in the 220 to hit the tape four yards in front of Steve O'Meara, poison oak and all.

Going into the finals of the broad jump, Bryan trailed San Jose's Ronnie Mair who had leaped 23 ft. 1 1/2 in. Before taking his final jumps, Stanford's workhorse galloped to another win in the 220 low hurdles as two teammates shut the Spartans completely out.

Five minutes later Bryan put everything he had left into a broad jump, which proved to be more than enough as it measured 24 ft. 2 in.

Others Besides Bryan

Least we give the impression Bryan was the only performer in the meet, several additional Indians and Spartans turned in outstanding marks.

San Jose's Woody Linn got off the greatest toss of his life in the shot put as he broke the San Jose school record by almost two inches with a 50 ft. 9 in. effort. Woody had to be satisfied with a third, however as Stanford's terrific twosome of Otis Chandler and Lew Davis became the first members of a dual team in history to surpass 54 ft. in the same meet.

Other top performances: NCAA javelin champ Bud Held broke his own Stanford record flipping the spear 225 ft. 8 1/4 in.; George Mattos copped one of three San Jose first places, clearing 13 ft. 6 in. effortlessly in the pole vault; and Bob Herrick ran an unofficial 48.1 relay lap for the Spartans.

Spartan Frosh Win

All was not despair for Spartan trackmen as Friday the San Jose freshman squad drubbed two opponents, racking up 77 points to 49 1-2 for Menlo Junior College, and Placer J. C.'s 32 1-2.

Warren Eisenberg was the Spartan star as he took the 100 and 220 yard dashes in 9.9 and 21.5, respectively.

Eisenberg not only whipped his Menlo and Placer opponents but defeated Don Smalley, former varsity sprinter who was running unattached. Smalley, who has been the top 100 and 200 man on Coach Bud Winter's teams for the past three years, was recently declared ineligible because of scholastic difficulties.

San Jose's Durwood Slater turned in a journeyman performance as he registered a double win in the mile and two mile, in addition to running a 440 relay lap.

Varsity results:

Mile — Lyons (S) 25 yds, Purdy (SJ), 30 yds., Day (SJ) — 4:23.1.

BRONZAN ATTENDS NOTRE DAME SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE

Bob Bronzan, San Jose State line coach, returned recently from Notre Dame university where he was the guest of Frank Leahy, head coach of the Fighting Irish.

Bronzan was invited by Leahy to observe Notre Dame's spring football practice, which is still going on, but was forced to return to San Jose earlier than expected because of a death in the family.

The likable Spartan coach thus became the only outsider in Notre Dame history to officially watch the Irish practice. Leahy extended the invitation after both he and Bronzan attended a special football coaching school in Colorado last summer. The Notre Dame mentor was very impressed at Bronzan's knowledge of the game after discussing line play in particular with him.

SWIMMERS FACE ARIZONA TONIGHT

CAL POLY EDGES STATE 39-36 IN DUAL MEET

Twenty swimmers from the University of Arizona will attempt to outplush the Spartan aqua crew tonight at 8 o'clock in the San Jose State tank. The visitors are on a California invasion where they will meet College of Pacific and perform in a triangular event in Los Angeles against UCLA and Occidental College, in addition to the San Jose meet.

The border contingent is paced by Paul Monier and Vinton Pierce, both lettermen. Monier participates in the breaststroke and relays, while Pierce takes part in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle races and also competes in the relays.

Saturday night in San Luis Obispo, Coach Charlie Walker's poolmen suffered a 39 to 36 setback at the hands of the Cal Poly Mustangs. This outcome was an identical reverse of the previous contest held in the local pool.

Spartan frosh swimmers scored a 69 to 15 win over Tulare high school Friday night in the valley city. George Haines, Dick Lebedeff, George Sheets, Ray Bryant and Reece Knight led the victors. SJS-Cal Poly results:

300 Medley — San Jose (Lebedeff, Sheets, Hofman) 3:25.6.

220 Freestyle: Frye (CP), Guisness (SJ), Davis (CP) — 2:34.5.

50 Freestyle — Keeler (SJ) and Maxwell (CP), tie, Lowe (CP) — 25.5.

SPARTAN BASEBALL SKED

San Jose State's baseball team will play fifteen league games this season, nine of which will be played on the Spartan's home grounds. Cal Poly, Fresno State, and College of Pacific will play three game series here, with the Spartans visiting San Diego and Santa Barbara.

SPARTANS TRIUMPH OVER IDAHO COYOTES, 10-5; FACE GAELS TOMORROW

By CLIFF DANIELS

Seven Coyote miscues paved the way for a San Jose State baseball victory, Saturday night, as the Spartans registered a 10-5 triumph over the College of Idaho on the Municipal Stadium diamond.

Nine State runs were unearned, with Huston Garman, Coyote hurler, being reached for only six base knocks. The visiting pitcher struck out 10 men, walked five and committed one balk.

Heavy Hitter

BOB WUESTHOFF, San Jose State's left fielder, who has proved to be a consistent performer on the diamond this season.

State Tennis Team Defeats Cal Poly

The Spartan tennis team won its second straight CCAA victory and its sixth match in ten starts by defeating Cal Poly 6-3 Friday.

The State netters took five singles and one doubles matches. The results: Singles — Bob Carlson (CP) def. Chet Bulwa, 6-2, 13-11; Gene Franco (SJS) def. Bob Reddin 6-2, 3-6, 7-5; Bob Phelps (SJS) def. Paul Charles Jr. (CP) 6-0, 4-6, 6-4; Ed Terry (SJS) def. Irvin Swain (CP) 4-6, 6-1, 6-3; Jim Cruze (SJS) def. Jensen Won (CP) 4-6, 6-2, 6-4; Keith Nelson (SJS) def. Bill Hobbs (CP) 6-2, 8-6.

Doubles: Reddin and Carlson (CP) def. Bulwa and Terry (SJS) 6-3, 8-6; Charles and Johns (CP) def. Cruze and Franco (SJS) 6-2, 2-6, 6-4; Russo and Phelps (SJS) def. Swain and Crutiss (CP) 11-9, 6-4.

Romero Chucks

Ralph Romero, moundsman for the locals, was touched for 10 hits but got good support from his mates and had no trouble after the fourth frame when Idaho tallies three times.

A double and triple by short-stop Don Lopes was the best plate effort for San Jose, while Payne, the invaders' second baseman, hit safely in three of his four times at bat.

Pete Denevi returned to the diamond wars against the Coyotes after having missed several games because of a shoulder injury. Denevi's return will strengthen the club considerably, because he is slated to do the majority of the back stopping duties for Coach Walt Williams' crew this season.

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, the St. Mary's Gaels come to San Jose to battle the Spartans at the Municipal Stadium. This will be the last tuneup contest for San Jose before they square off against San Diego State in the CCAA opener Friday night.

Last month, in a game played at Moraga, the Gaels edged out the Spartans, 8-7, and Coach Walt Williams' men will be out to even accounts.

Gymnasts Shutout In NCAA Tourney

Tom Humphrey and Dick Brown, San Jose State's two entries in the NCAA gymnastics meet in Berkeley, failed to register any points in the Saturday events, and the local institution was blanked.

Humphrey entered in spite of an injured hand, which hampered his chances of placing in any of the many events. Temple university won the title by accounting for 28 points. The University of Illinois was second with 17 1-2 and Kent college of Ohio tied for third with California and Minnesota.

"Come on, gang," said cheerin' Charlie.
